

Terror Strikes in San Bernardino

OC Intelligence Assessment Center & OC Shield

Wednesday, October 19, 2016
8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

The terrorist attack at the Inland Regional Center in San Bernardino on December 2, 2015 tragically changed the lives of many people. The men and women who responded to emergent calls for help and participated in the apprehension of the suspects have many lessons learned to impart. These three presentations will provide unique detailed information from law enforcement's first arrival on-scene, the first-in fire paramedic, and a SWAT physician's on-scene field interventions and Trauma Center response.

Target Audiences:

Private sector stakeholders, law enforcement, fire and emergency medical communities are encouraged to attend this symposium.

Presenters:

Eric McBride, Assistant Chief of Police

- San Bernardino Police Department

Hans Strebel, Firefighter/Paramedic

- Orange County Fire Authority
- Formerly San Bernardino City Fire

Michael M. Neeki, DO, MS, FACEP

- Arrowhead Regional Medical Center/
Emergency Department
- Inland Valley SWAT

Learning Objectives:

- Importance of situational awareness
- Responder and scene safety
- Pre-incident planning and mitigation
- Responder post-incident well being

Register at: ociac.ca.gov

Registration instructions are as follows:

- Position/Title/Rank- select 'Other'
- Unit of Assignment- list name of business
- POST ID #- skip this
- Agency/Organization- select 'Private Sector' on drop down menu

Cost:

FREE

Please refer any questions to Heather Houston at: heathous@ociac.ca.gov

